

SUMMER READING

Entering 1st Grade BOOKLIST & PROJECT

Read THREE books from the Summer Reading list below. After reading the chosen three books, choose ONE book you read to complete your Summer Reading Project. Your summer reading project is due the first week of class and yields a quiz grade.

Hand to Hold–JJ Helen

With delightful illustrations and an engaging rhyme scheme, this book offers the promise of security and love every child's heart longs to know. From skipping stones and counting stars to climbing trees and telling stories, every moment is wrapped snugly in the certain warmth of a parent's presence and God's blessing. With poignancy and joy, this bedtime read captures the unconditional love parents want their children to know but so often fail to express amid the chaos of daily life.

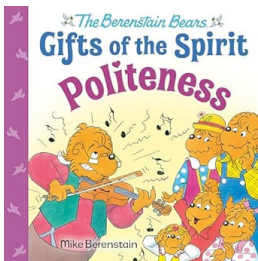

– Amazon.com description

Build–Emily Lex

We are each a masterpiece designed by God to reflect His image in our own one-of-a-kind, never-ever-to-be-duplicated way. Help your children celebrate their specialness as you share this charming tale about a boy who discovers the truth of who God made him to be, with a little help from his animal friends—some of nature's master builders.

– Amazon.com description

Gifts of the Spirit: Politeness–Mike Berenstein

Gramps loves to play his violin, but unfortunately, he isn't very good! Brother, Sister and Honey Bear learn that being polite is more than just saying 'Please' and 'Thank you'.

– Amazon.com description

Other Series:

Summer Reading Project:

After reading the chosen three books, your child will complete the attached story retell, draw a picture of, and tell their favorite part of the book.

On the first Friday of the new school year, students will share their retell, the picture they drew, and dress as a character from the book.