COMMITMENT

Abundant Life Christian Academy is dedicated to the glory of God. We believe there is a direct relationship between what student believe and how student behave. Student behavior shapes character and reputation.

As a student here, the Academy expects you to live in accordance with biblical standards. In particular, you are expected to honor God and His Word, respect the United States of America, and submit to school authority. You are expected to abstain from use of alcohol, drugs, tobacco, weapons or any item that gives like appearance, as well as inappropriate language and behavior towards adults, classmates, and members of the opposite sex. Disciplinary actions will include detentions, field trip/year-end trip exclusion, suspensions, and/or expulsion.

I understand the above explanation and pledge to abide by its expectation. I pledge to do my part to make the Academy a caring, constructive, and safe place to be.
